THIS WILL BEAT THE NEW CONSTITUTION

The proposition now before the constitutional convention to tax all mortgages 1 per cent a year for five years from the date of filing with the recorder will beat the new constitution if it is embraced in it.

No worse proposition could be made.

The borrower would have to pay the tax.

Young people buying homes would have their burden increased.

And the additional tax, like all extra taxes, would only be used to create more office-holding tax eaters.

That is what we are taxed for.

EAGLETS.

Calvin F. Craig, the able president of the Mechanics & Traders State Bank, deserves great credit for the well deserved popularity of that big West Side institution.

Mayor Thompson was the father of municipal playgrounds. He introduced and secured the passage of the first ordinance creating one while he was an alderman.

Louis J. Behan, the well known lawyer and popular master in chancery, is frequently mentioned for a place on the Superior Bench. Every one who knows him believes that he would make a fine judge.

Joseph F. Haas has always made a good public record. He is a man of the people.

John U. Smyth, the well known real estate and insurance man, is always a booster for the west side.

Don't put your money on out-of-town boosting schemes. Just spend it in Chicago with Chicago people.

Corporation Counsel Ettelson and Judges Barasa, Crowe and Barrett, and E. R. Litzinger are Republicans talked of for state's attorney.

George L. Schein, the well known lawyer, who numbers his friends by the thousand, would make a fine judge.
Mr. Schein has no ambition in this direction. It is said, but his ability, fairness and legal experience well fit him for judicial honors.

W. B. Carlile is giving general satisfaction as postmaster of Chicago.
His successful handling of this great and important office reflects great credit upon the national administration.
The public is well satisfied and Mr. Carlile's ability and courtesy have won for himself and President Wilson many words of commendation.

William H. Lyman, the popular former senator and alderman, is at the head of the big public contracting firm of W. H. Lyman & Co.

Frank Johnston, Jr., able judge of the Circuit court, would make a great governor of Illinois.

Fletcher Dobyns, the popular master in chancery, is at the forefront in every movement for the betterment of Chicago.

One of the most interesting stores in the city to visit is that of Karl Mayer & Company, in the North American building, 16 South State street. Men go there for service dental and shaving creams, and women for the prize baby soap and a grand line of toilet articles.

WILLIAM H. SEXTON.
Popular Democratic Candidate for County Judge.

Dominick Marubio is a leader in the teaming and transfer business of Chicago. He has built up his big business by strict attention to the needs and wishes of his many patrons.

Otto Rice, the popular secretary and manager of the Quick Service Lau-dry Company, would make a splendid West Park commissioner. He is public spirited and popular, and has the good wishes of his fellow citizens.

George W. Paullin, the well known furrier and Drainage Board Trustee, is being talked of for delegate to the National Republican convention from the Tenth District.

Samuel R. Kaufman the popular president of the famous Congress Hotel Company and head of the great Congress Hotel, is one of the most public spirited citizens of Chicago who is always keenly alive on everything uplifting the city and a broad-minded man of affairs who makes everyone who patronizes his hotel happy.

Chicago needs a new postoffice building and needs it badly right away.

The new building should be located in the center of the great West Side where car lines are direct routes to north and south, east and west districts of the city.

ADAM WOLF.
Popular County Assessor.

Adam Ortselien, one of the best of Chicago's City Treasurers, would make a good State Treasurer.

James M. Whalen is making a splendid record as county civil service commissioner. He deserves well at the hands of the people, as he has always been faithful to every public trust imposed on him.

A. J. Kowalski, cashier of the big North-Western Trust and Savings bank is frequently mentioned for state treasurer of Illinois. He is very popular and would be elected if he permitted the use of his name. Mr.
Kowalski is a Democrat and a leading member of the Iroquois club.

The Mechanics & Traders State Bank is making a splendid record and is gaining new customers and depositors every day. It has an ideal location in the heart of the great westside at the corner of Washington and Desplaines street.

Going into hysterics about boosting Chicago at the expense of Chicago people in newspapers in other cities is raw stuff. A million dollars a year for this kind of boosting would help whom?

Automobilists who flash their "bright lights" in the eyes of pedestrians and other autoists cause most of the auto accidents.

CHARLES KRUTCKOFF.
Popular County Assessor.

In the PUBLIC EYE

CROKER, ONCE BOSS OF TAMMANY HALL

Three of the four children of Richard Croker, once the most powerful boss Tammany hall ever had, have begun in the courts a struggle to oust his second wife, whom he married six years ago, and take full possession of his estate, said by them to amount to $10,000,000.

They have filed in a Florida court affidavits that he is eighty years old, is senile, incompetent to manage his affairs, and completely under the domination of his second wife. They charge that she is already in possession of much of the fortune and is wasting it.

Mr. Croker in 1914 when he was seventy-four years old, married Miss Beulah Benton Emundson, then thirty years old. Mrs. Croker's autobiography is briefly thus:

She was born in what was the Indian territory, near Maysville, Ark., in 1884. She is enrolled as a Cherokee Indian, one of the five civilized tribes, and as such has an allotment of land.
She was educated in the Cherokee National Female seminary and the university. She taught mathematics in the seminary for five years. Then she studied expression in the East. In New York she maintained herself by recitals and remittances from her parents. In March, 1913, she represented Oklahoma in the suffrage parade that was part of the inauguration events.

JOHN M. BERRY.
Leading and Popular Northsider and Large Owner of Real Estate Who is Often Talked of for Mayor and Other Public Positions.

M'KINLEY TELLS RAILROAD TRUTHS

W. B. MCKINLEY.

Congressman William B. McKinley of Illinois recently delivered a speech in the house on the railroad bill. He said things that interest every American citizen because they are based on actual conditions. He said in part:

"There are outstanding in the United States 40,000,000 life insurance policies, policies owned by you and by me for the purpose of protecting our loved ones in case death comes to us. I wonder if these people who so glibly talk of confiscation, or, what is the same thing, cutting off the railroads' power to earn interest, realize that the security back of his insurance policy is in a large part railroad mortgages? About one-fourth of all railroad bonds are owned by savings banks and insurance companies.

"It is now estimated that $6,000,- 000,000, an amount practically one-half of the present mortgage debt of the 250,000 miles of railroads of the country, will be needed to rehabilitate the railroads during the next five years.

"If there is any question as to the ability to repay both principal and interest, the savings of the people will not go into new railroad securities."

MRS. SUZUKI, HETTY GREEN OF JAPAN

Mrs. Yone Suzuki of Kobe is the Hetty Green of Japan. Twenty years ago her husband died, leaving her with two young sons and an exporting business. Now her name is known all over the world. The exports dealt in by the founder of the house—rice, cereals, camphor—are still large factors in Mrs. Suzuki's affairs. But she also imports from America iron, coal, automobiles, farming implements. Her interests are large in all parts of the world in lead and copper mines, flour mills, etc.

During the war she filled orders for $200,000,000 goods for the allies.

Mrs. Suzuki is now sixty years old, but is active as ever, keeping in personal touch with everything with which she has to deal in any part of the world and interested, it is said, in all that concerns Japan politically and economically. When her two sons reached maturity she took them in the business.

Coincident with the Russo-Japanese war she went into the shipping business, beginning with a few steamships to carry her own exports and now controls the International Steamship company, the ships of which sail the seven seas.

SENATOR ANNE MARTIN FROM NEVADA?

MISS ANNE MARTIN.

Miss Anne Martin, who was an independent candidate for the United States senate in 1918, has announced that she is now running for the Republican senatorial nomination. The term of Senator Charles B. Henderson, (Dem.), expires March 3, 1921. Miss Martin said she would accept the Republican nomination if it were offered her, but that under no circumstances would she make a lone fight in the primary against a bipartisan fusion candidate. If opposed by such a candidate she will file her petition as an independent before the primary.

Miss Martin says she is for the worker and against privilege. She is opposed to the peace treaty and the League of Nations. She would support a league of peace of all nations.
She wants soldiers in war paid a salary at least equivalent to the civilian pay.

She demands the restoration of the rights of free speech, press and assembly; the release of political prisoners and conscientious objectors and a reduction in the high cost of living.

SHERMAN, NEW ASSOCIATE FORESTER

Edward A. Sherman of Utah, has been selected to succeed Albert F.
Potter as associate forester of the forest service. Mr. Sherman has been assistant forester in charge of the branch of lands in the forest service since 1915. In 1903 he was appointed supervisor of the Bitterroot forest reserve in Montana, as an officer of the department of the interior, which was then in charge of the federal reserves.

He entered the forest service through the transfer of administration of the forests to the department of agriculture, in 1905. In 1907 he was promoted to forest inspector, and shortly afterwards was made chief inspector of the national forests in Montana and northern Idaho.

In 1910, after having served in California for something over a year as supervisor of the Sequoia national forest, he was appointed district forester in charge of the national forests of Utah, Nevada, and southern Idaho. In this district use of the national forests for live-stock grazing constitutes the leading activity. For this reason probably comes the selection of Mr. Sherman to succeed Mr. Potter.

EDWARD A. SHERMAN.

CLYDE A. MORRISON.
Popular Editor of Plain Facts whose Articles on Chicago Hit the Mark.

Alderman Walter F. Steffen of the Twenty-third ward, is making a good record in the City Council. He is one of the coming men of Chicago and the people are pleased with him.

J. W. Deer, the popular president of the American Sewer and Drainage Construction Co., at 2816 N. Washtenaw avenue, is one of the progressive men of Chicago. Always interested in the city's welfare, he is a booster of its interests and is always at the fore front of every movement for bettering the condition of his fellow citizens.

Paul H. Wiedel, the able and courteous chief clerk of the board of assessors, is one of the most capable and highly respected public officials in Cook county. He is a live wire in the cause of good public service.

Carl Appel, the owner of the justly famous North Side Turner Hall, and restaurant, is a wide awake citizen, of whom Chicago is proud.

The City Council wants to find out the high cost of living. Profiteers may find out also before the Aldermen get through with them.

JOHN F. O'MALLEY.
Faithful Lieutenant of Roger C. Sullivan who will be delegate at large to the National Convention.
